Thus, this far I have reached

Where is this?

I don’t know

This is somewhere in time

And a place in space

Does it matter where is this?

Is it that relevant?

Or just a way for me to compare

To compare to others

This is that

And this is there

Why would I care?

I am here, that’s all that matters

No more thinking

No more feeling

Just a fact that no one can deny
